9th Annual PA Fly Fishing Heritage Day – a Success

We had beautiful sunny weather for this year’s Heritage Day on June 18 one of our biggest events yet! Angling enthusiasts and supporters came to the Meadow and Picnic Pavilion at Allenbergy Resort Inn in Boiling Springs and took part in this great day to make it a success for all. The day was filled with fun from beginning to end. There were all-day casting instruction, vendors and exhibitors, fly tiers in action, a casting competition, a free youth raffle and the popular Fish Swim Race on the Yellow Breeches, and speakers , and The Colonial Angler. Help us to thank our vendors and donors for making the event a success:

SPECIAL EVENT---“PANEL OF EXERTS”

On October 8, prior to the annual dinner/auction, PFFMA will be offering a rare opportunity for anglers to go one-on-one with three of the top names in fly fishing: Lefty Kreh, the greatest icon in the sport, and master of all things fly fishing will share his lifetime of experience and endless store of expertise; Ed Jaworowski, internationally known fly casting coach and resource for fresh and salt water tackle and techniques; Charlie Mcke, the author on Pennsylvania streams and prolific author of a dozen books on trout fishing, stream insects and flies. Here’s your chance to chat and ask questions, in an informal setting, about species, tackle, techniques, casting, flies, equipment, tying, destinations, photography, or any other topics that interest you. One of the members of the PFFMA Board of Directors will serve as moderator for the event.

The panel will run from 3:00-5:00, and take place on Saturday, October 8, 2011, at Allenberry Resort on the Yellow Breeches Creek in Boiling Springs. Light refreshments will be served. The cost for participation will be $75, less $10 if purchased in conjunction with a ticket for the annual fundraiser dinner/auction following the panel. As a bonus, a new TFO “BVK” (Lefty’s initials) will be presented to one of the attendees by random drawing.
