About PFFMA:

The PFFMA is the leading organization in the collection and preservation of the rich fly fishing heritage of Pennsylvania. The PFFMA Museum works with fly fishers, historians, and conservationists to collect materials and develop exhibits and programs that reflect all schools of the Pennsylvania fly fishing tradition.

Ed Jaworowski, is an internationally recognized flyfishing authority, is best known as a casting coach. He has given hundreds of casting demonstrations across North and Central America, and the British Isles, in addition to schools, seminars, and AV presentations on all facets of fly fishing. His books on fly casting, fly tying, fly fishing, as well as photographs and hundreds of articles, have been published in the US, England, Spain, Norway, Belgium, Germany, Hungary, Italy, and Japan.

Lefty Kreh's credentials and credits alone could fill the Pennsylvania Fly Fishing Museum. Lefty is arguably the greatest icon in the history of American fly fishing. Lefty is the author/co-author of 30 books, not including the 25 volume set of "Lefty's Little Library". Lefty is a master of all fishing related topics from A to Z. Lefty has a strong bond to fly fishing in Pennsylvania, and has fished with many of its icons, past and present. Fox, Marinaro, Koch, Clouser, Shenk, Humphreys and the Becks.

2014 Heritage Day a Success

12th Annual PA Fly Fishing Heritage Day

We had beautiful sunny weather for this year's Heritage Day on June 16th, our most successful event yet! Angling enthusiasts and supporters came to the Meadow and Picnic Pavilion at Allenberry Resort Inn in Boiling Springs and took part in this event that featured all-day casting instruction, speakers, many vendors and exhibitors, fly tiers in action, a casting competition, a free youth raffle, and the ever popular Fish Swim Race on the Yellow Breeches.

Youth Raffle Winner 2014 PFFMA Heritage Day

Fish Swim Winners

The grand prize winner was Victor Ezerski. Victor won $500, and donated $100 back to PFFMA. We thank Victor!

PFFMA REVENUE

The Pennsylvania Fly Fishing Museum Association derives its revenue from three major sources :

MAJORFUND-RAISERS, the annual Open House, Heritage Day and our annual Fall Fund raising Banquet.

MEMBERSHIPS: Our memberships start at $25 and go up to $250 and beyond. Memberships are very important to us as they are the starting base of everything.

DONATIONS: We receive monetary donations throughout the year. Our main source of donations are display sponsorships. Currently we have the Penn State Angling Class $1,000, The Barry and Cathy Beck Display case, $1,250. Two small display cases at $500 each. Each sponsorship will receive a brass plaque with their name on the case.

New 2015 Heritage Day Additions

The PFFMA will be hosting the 2015 Mid-Atlantic Fly Tying Championships. The event is sponsored and managed by Cumberland Valley Trout Unlimited (CVTU). We are looking forward to making this event memorable for CVTU. Details to follow.

The PFFMA will be holding a Bamboo Rod Building Forum. This will be a great opportunity for beginning rod builders to experience a hands on, step by step experience in building a classic bamboo rod. Details to follow.

Everyone attending the annual fund-raising banquet will receive a Henryville Special
